Re: CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

The AlphaApps would like to participate in and be supportive of your mobile application project. We understand that in the course of our participation with you, we may have access to information from you (collectively, "Plans"). These Plans may contain the ideas, inventions and concepts (collectively "Ideas") that belong to you. We understand that all intellectual and other property rights of all parties involved will remain unaltered as a result of supporting you, the client. We also understand that some of these Ideas may constitute trade secrets and that the client may not have yet taken appropriate steps to patent, copyright or otherwise protect their Plans or Ideas.

In consideration of our participation with the client, The AlphaApps agree for the benefit of the client that only we will review the Plans submitted to us and that we will take all reasonable effort to hold the Plans and Ideas which we may receive from the client in strict confidence and will not copy, reveal, or disclose such Plans or ideas to others and that we will not use any such Plans or Ideas for our own benefit or the benefit of any organisation with which we are affiliated.

The above restrictions shall not apply to any Plan or Idea which is in the public domain at the time of disclosure or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act of ours, is known to us at the time of disclosure or is independently developed by The AlphaApps members, is used or disclosed with the approval of the individuals involved, is furnished to a third party without similar restrictions on the third party's rights, is received by us from a third party who has a lawful right to disclose it to us, or is disclosed pursuant to the requirement or request of a government agency.

The above restrictions will apply during the time that we are supporting the client and beyond.

We are pleased to support you and during our involvement with you we agree to abide by such other rules and guidelines, which the client may reasonably impose.
